FRIDAY 1-ALL SAINTS

ALL SAINTS

We remember the Saints in the security of our hearts, those whom we have carried within us since childhood; those with whom we speak in the dark moments of cold and loneliness and those who give us, by their example, the courage to go forth and prevail. We praise those who have made us holy from times past and we proclaim the saints of our own generations. These great women and men of God are the ancient foundations of our faith and our inspiration. God has sent them to us in times of loss and confusion. They have blessed us; they have led us; they have loved us; they led God's people to God's Light. Let us celebrate those who have formed us. Let us rejoice in the precious gift of their lives. *Pray for Rio Grande (The Episcopal Church) The Rt Revd Michael Vono; Delaware (The Episcopal Church) The Rt Revd Kevin S. We pray for the Church, that she may always confidently proclaim the kingship of Christ, by building up a kingdom not of riches and of power, but of justice, peace and love. We pray for those who have passed from this life; may they share in Christ's victory over death and enter into life. Father, you call us to be part of your kingdom of which Christ is King. SUNDAY 10-TWENTY SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOSTSpecial Day of Prayer: Remembrance Sunday-those who died in war

This day we honour all who die as a result of humanity's common failing to live in the peace you have hoped for all these millennia. God, we pray too for those who returned from battle forever changed by what they had seen; for those who bore, and still bear, wounds of body and soul. In particular we remember those from within this community who have died in the pursuit of freedom. God of love, as we have remembered and honoured, we prepare to go back into our everyday lives. May the remembering we have done here today reawaken and strengthen our commitment to work for peace, true peace. Help us to remember that peace will never truly come from a gun barrel but from the depths of our hearts. Help us remember our calling to be peacemakers at home and abroad, in the big things and in the small, and may we never forget the cost that has already been paid. God of peace that surpasses all understanding, these are our remembrances and our hopes that we pray in the name of Christ. Pray for the Lusitanian Church (Extra-Provincial to the Archbishop of Canterbury); The Rt Revd Jorge Pina Cabral - Bishop of the Lusitanian Church (Anglican Cycle of Prayer)
