Message from Archbishop Thabo Makgoba

It is with profound sorrow that I have to announce the devastating news that the Bishop of Swaziland in eSwatini, the Right Revd Ellinah Wamukoya, died today, 19 January. Bishop Ellinah was admitted to hospital late last week and was put on oxygen therapy for Covid-19.

We express our deepest condolences to her husband, Okwaro Henry Wamukoya, their children and grandchildren.

Message from Bishop Margaret Vertue

We receive the sad news of the passing of Bishop Ellinah, consecrated as the Bishop of Swaziland on 17 November 2012.

Bishop Ellinah and I were the only women Bishops in our Province and always had a special connection. God called her home on the anniversary of my Consecration.

The Diocese of False mourns her passing, and we express our deepest sympathy to her family, the people of her Diocese and the broader Anglican Church of Southern Africa.
